

QUALITY POLICY

For Götessons Industri AB, the customer and the end-user are the most important part of our business. They shall always experience sustainable, high-quality products which contribute to a better working environment and workplace. Customers should always be satisfied with our services and products. Our products shall contribute to a healthy workplace with good lightning, ergonomics and excellent acoustics.

Götessons will:

- Offer innovative and high-quality office product solutions and whole interior concepts.
- Make customers and end-users happy with our products and services and fulfil their requirements.
- Be an attractive employer with satisfied employees.
- Develop and adapt the product and service range to meet stakeholders' requirements and expectations.
- Comply with applicable laws, regulations and other binding requirements of stakeholders.
- Place quality demands on all suppliers.
- Constantly improve quality performance, the management system, our operations and the way we do business.

Ulricehamn, 2021-04-01

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'E. Johansson', is centered on a light blue background.

Emil Johansson, CEO